Announcing the 2019 Call for President and Vice-President of OCEANS

The OCEANS Network is looking for two new leaders to represent the International Credit Mobility students and alumni around the world and at the ESAA level. If you are from an ESAA programme country and have been on exchange outside of the EU or a non-European who has done an exchange in Europe, then you are eligible to apply for the President or Vice-President positions.

Why apply for the President and Vice-President of OCEANS?

Volunteering in OCEANS is a great possibility to learn new skills, gain valuable experience and build up your personal network with high performing people from around the world.

Eligibility

Membership of the OCEANS Network by being an International Credit Mobility student or alumnus is required.

Responsibilities

This is a year long position starting the last week of January 2019. Candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency should expect to devote up to 10 hours a week to this position. The position requires frequent international travel on behalf of the organization on a relative short notice.

OCEANS President and Vice-President are also expected to occupy respective positions at the level of ESAA. A detailed list of the expected tasks that two leaders are expected to perform is available here for President and here for

Next steps

Please fill in the form at the following link by the 21 of December 2018. If more than one person enters their candidacy, OCEANS will host an internal election to determine the next President and Vice-President.

During the time from 22 December till 4 January, the candidates will be able to answer any questions from members of the OCEANS network.

The election is expected to take place online between 5-13 January 2019.

The successful candidate will be notified on 14 January and from that date s/he will be introduced to the OCEANS network and ESAA Board.

Official mandate is expected to begin near the end of January 2019 and will end January 2020.

In the ten days between 14 and 24 January 2019, the successful candidate will be briefed in detail by the former President and Vice-President. For a period of two months, the new President and Vice-President will be supported closely by the former President and Vice-President for any issues that may arise. The former President and Vice-President remain available for consultation throughout the mandate.
